The Q-learner: An example

In order to understand how (uniform) exploration works, we can also see how many times each element in the Q-table is visited.

Considering panel B, it is easy to see what is the optimal action for each level of available resources.

Notice that all elements are not visited in panel C. This is the whole point!